HOW TO SECURE A JOB IN THE MUSIC INDUSTRY

Are you interested in music and looking for a job within the music industry? You don't have to be a performer to have a career in music – there is a wide range of interesting jobs available. For example you could be a music booking agent, work in the PR department of a record company or work as part of a music festival event management team.

The 'Jobs in the Music Industry' events will explore:

- ◆ Skills that employers want
- ◆ Importance of volunteering/work experience for CVs
- ◆ Types of jobs available in the music industry
- ◆ Different ways of finding jobs
- ◆ Useful qualifications
- ◆ Making the most of networking
- ◆ Importance of first impressions

The event will be led by marketing expert, Melanie Paris and education researcher and adviser Karen Merrifield. They will be joined by young industry professionals, who are working in the music industry, who will talk about the type of work they do and how they found their jobs.

These events are organised by Music4U and are aimed at: young people aged 14 -15 years looking at GCSE options and 16 to 19 years who are looking at future education and work opportunities.

If you would like to find out more about future music employability events or are interested in booking one – please contact Melanie Paris on 01904 632220 or email melanie.paris@ncem.co.uk

Music4U offers musical opportunities to young people under the age of 18 living in challenging circumstances throughout York and the Humber region.
