Welcome

We are delighted that you are considering the National Centre for Early Music (NCEM) as a venue for your celebration. The backdrop for your day will be our medieval Grade 1 listed converted church of St Margaret's. It stands in the heart of the City of York and is surrounded by beautiful private gardens for you and your guests to enjoy.

We are a welcoming, accessible and inclusive venue for all faiths situated inside the city walls, just off Walmgate, a stones throw from the beautiful Walmgate Bar.

As a registered charity, we are constantly working to continue to utilise the power of music to change lives, engaging with communities of all ages and backgrounds locally, regionally, nationally and internationally. Our education programmes I Can Play, which provides music-making opportunities for D/deaf children across York, and Minster Minstrels, the NCEM's youth early music ensemble for school-age musicians, are just some of the ways your booking helps make it possible for us to continue changing lives through music.

A full-page photograph of a wedding couple walking hand-in-hand in front of a large, ancient stone archway. The woman is wearing a long, flowing white dress and the man is in a dark suit with a floral tie and a boutonniere. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of late afternoon or early morning. The stone archway is made of rough-hewn blocks and has a mossy, aged appearance. The couple is walking on a paved path that leads into the archway.
